Coach's Report

Today is the last round of the league games, and it shows just how close the competition has been, with four teams still able to win the league. There are some very important games this evening to decide who finishes where.

This evening we welcome Brisbane Strikers to Leichhardt Oval. Bruce Stowell has a very good squad to select from with Frank Farina leading the way and other very good team mates in Rod Brown, Sean and Troy Cranney and Jason Polak to name a few.

With Brisbane and ourselves both still in with a chance of the top two positions it should be a very good game with both teams requiring a victory.

Last week we had a let down at West Adelaide where we lost 3-2.

We had a number of players who didn't play as well as they had in the two previous wins against Marconi and Sydney Utd and we need those players to bounce back today. Peter Tsekenis played very well in his comeback after missing six games.

It was pleasing to see Walter Ardone selected to go to Chile with the National team. It shows that there are rewards for players who work hard at their game. Unfortunately we don't have Walter available today and we are also missing Milan Blagojevic for our next three games due to suspension which is a big blow to us. But the players taking their places get the chance to make sure they are in the side for the play off games.

As this is our last league game, I would like to thank on behalf of Steve Darby, Peter Papanikitas, Alex Lambropoulos and myself, everyone who has supported the teams throughout the season in whichever capacity. Hopefully all three teams will be in the play-offs which is very pleasing for the club and shows that we are moving in the right direction. Thank you.

There was a touch of de ja vu at Leichhardt Oval last Sunday when Alistair Edwards and Robbie Ironside scored to give Olympic a 2-1 win over Marconi.

It was Alistair and Robbie who scored goals against Marconi in the 1990 Grand Final to give Olympic the title.

Despite Robbie's great header last weekend, it has been a frustrating year for him having missed seven months of football with chronic tendonitis in his achilles.

Robbie hails from Christchurch New Zealand and has played 60 games with the All Whites and has been captain of New Zealand for 25 of those games.

He has also recently played in South China with team mate, Kris Trajanovski.

It is great to have Robbie back in the side and we hope he continues to score goals as the team heads towards the top 6 finals series.

Whistle Stop

by PHIL HAFEY

At the commencement of the season I was asked to write a regular column outlining law changes, new interpretations and items of interest about referees and refereeing. During the week I have been reviewing the articles I have written and I believe that the original objective has been achieved.

Some of the topics covered include: the new interpretations of the offside law, the implications of the change to reckless, careless and disproportionate force in Law 12, the sliding tackle, stoppage time, dangerous play. In addition the assessment and coaching of referees was covered in a few articles as was fitness training and disciplinary procedures.

The regular questions have also provided a source of information (frustration) and a better understanding of what referees are about.

The Marconi match provided another interesting point for discussion. Those who were at the game may remember UTS Olympic being penalised for offside from corners on two separate occasions – the first early in the match and the other midway through the second half. Both decisions provoked a response from the crowd who could not understand how a player can be offside from a corner.

The tactic of the short corner has been used around the world for some time now and, in many instances, the original kicker is offside as soon as the second player touches the ball unless the defending team has two players standing on the goal-line. Remember – a player is offside if he is nearer to his opponent's goal-line than two of his opponents and the ball at the moment the ball is played or touched by a team-mate. In the two instances in the Marconi match the UTS player who took the corner was offside when his team-mate, who was standing some 2 metres away, touched the ball and both linesmen were commended for their decisions.

I have attended many UTS Olympic home games this season and it has been obvious that more and more spectators are understanding the Laws of the Game and I hope that the regular articles have contributed to this improvement. I have certainly enjoyed attending Leichhardt Oval during the season and I look forward to being with you this evening.

QUESTIONS:

1. A fullback controls the ball with his feet and, knowing that his goalkeeper cannot play the ball with his hands if he kicks the ball to him, deliberately lifts the ball into the air with his foot and then heads the ball to his goalkeeper. What action should the referee take?
2. A team takes a quick free kick and the ball accidentally strikes an opponent who is still within the 10 yards, but attempting to move away. What action should the referee take?

2. Allow play to continue.

1. Stop play, award an indirect free kick against the fullback whether or not the goalkeeper touches the ball with his hands and caution the fullback for unsporting conduct. The fullback has committed the offence in attempting to circumvent the 'back-pass' rule – Law 12, IBD16.

UTS Olympic captain David Barrett breaks a club milestone tonight, making his 233rd appearance for the club. He bypasses Peter Raskopoulos to become the third ranked player with the highest number of total appearances. It is a tremendous achievement that David has accomplished and only Gary Meier and Gary Phillips have played more games for Olympic than David.

David is very much one of the club's favourite sons and will always be highly regarded at Olympic. He played his junior soccer in the Canterbury Association and then moved to Sydney City. He earned one senior appearance at Sydney City in 1987 before the club folded. Eddie Thomson then brought him over to Olympic and in that year he played a key part in helping to win the Youth League Grand Final. This 1987 Sydney Olympic championship winning Youth Team also featured Steve Refenes, Jason Bennett, Eric Hristodoulou, Steve Georgakis, Craig Sharpley and Nick Plataniotis.

The next season David was promptly promoted to first grade. He made his senior debut for Olympic against Sydney United in the season opener at Parramatta Stadium in front of a great crowd. David fondly remembers this game as Olympic upstaged their more fancied opponents including Socceroos Robbie Slater and Graham Arnold and won 3-0. David had an outstanding season and helped the team finish as semi-finalists. He had done enough to proudly cement a permanent position in the first team.

His proudest and most memorable moment at the club was winning the 1989/90 Championship against Marconi. The team had lost the Grand Final the year earlier to Marconi and owed it to all the supporters to bring home the Championship. They did not disappoint and won the Grand Final convincingly 2-0. David unfortunately could not party till the early hours of the morning with his teammates due to his final year university exams the next day, but stayed long enough to enjoy the celebrations. David along with Robbie Ironside and Alistair Edwards are the only players from that championship winning team that currently remain in the team today.

This moment along with playing in the 1985 U/17 World Cup for Australia in China, where he had the task of marking Hugo Maradona, brother of the legendary Diego, David regards as the highlights of his career. He also acknowledges former Olympic coaches Mick Hickman and Geoff Hardcombe as great influences on his distinguished career.

In the 10 years David has been at the club, he has played with a host of great players. He lists his Sydney Olympic Dream Team as follows:

- | | | | | |
|--------------------|----------------------|---------------------|-----------------|----------------------|
| 1. Gary Meier | 2. Grant Lee | 3. Mick Coady | 4. Andrew Berna | 5. Robert Hooker |
| 6. Robert Ironside | 7. Peter Raskopoulos | 8. Milan Blagojevic | 9. Abbas Saad | 10. Alistair Edwards |
| 11. Steve Refenes | | | | |

David is constantly full of praise for the fanatical supporters at Olympic and has a message for them this season: "The 1995/96 season has seen passionate support for the team, especially the two away games in Brisbane and Melbourne. The team would do their utmost best to see that the supporters are rewarded for their dedication to the team."

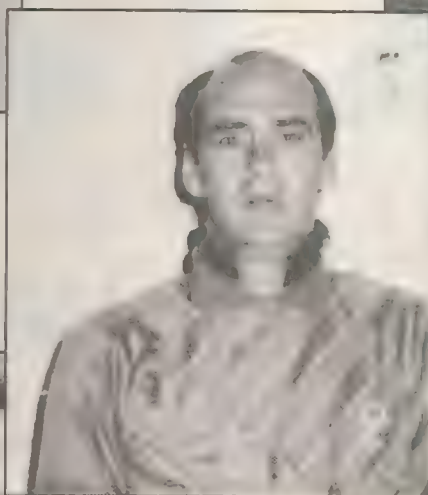

David has been at UTS Olympic for 10 years and the loyalty he has shown to the club has to be commended. His reputation of always fulfilling his duties as right fullback without complaint have earned him the title of "Mr Consistency".

David is truly a fine ambassador for UTS Olympic and always represents the team with dignity and pride. His contribution to the club this season has been invaluable, not only in his on-field performances but also representing the club off-field on radio and television, as well as his weekly "True Blue" column in the local papers.

One of the many highlights at the club this season has been the emergence of David as team captain. David this season has been inspirational to his fellow teammates and has always lead by example. With UTS Olympic now entering the finals race one thing is for certain - under David's leadership we are destined for success!

ROBBIE IRONSIDE - Rejoined Olympic this season after a season in Hong Kong. Capped 171 times and back in the squad after recovering from an ankle injury.

JOHN KOCH - Left Olympic in 1990. Has played with numerous national and state league clubs. Now playing with the Canberra Cosmos.

GRANT LEE - Retired from national league after 1994/95 season after 159 games for Sydney Olympic. Now playing for Sydney Cosmos in NSW First Division.

"Development Corner"

by LAKI KONISTIS

Good evening folks and welcome to UTS Olympic's final home game in this season's Ericsson Cup.

UTS Olympic's Development Program this past season has reached exceptional heights and is littered with many, many wonderful highlights.

This overwhelming success has been achieved because of many people – who I wish to publicly acknowledge.

Firstly to the Committee for bestowing their total faith in me and allowing me to continue as Development Co-Ordinator. Special mention must also go to Ms Lydia Dowse and Director Lex Marinos whose added involvement ensured the program would succeed from the outset.

A BIG THANK-YOU to head coaches Dave Ratcliffe and Steve Darby for their wholehearted support of the Development Program.

Just one further highlight of UTS Olympic's Development Program – being special guests at Northbridge Soccer Club's holiday soccer clinic.

And last but not least, to the countless players from 1sts and Youths who dedicated countless hours of their time for the good of lifting the club's image within the community. Special mention must also go to Peter Tsekenis and Kris Trajanovski.

It was a wonderful team effort in 1995-'96.

See you all again next year, I hope ...
